gist Examples: Ordered Collections
Finishing Order in a Race

- John and Jane are competing in two races.

- In one race, Jane comes in first and John second.

- In the other race John comes in first and Jane second.

- We need two ordered collections, one for each finishing order.
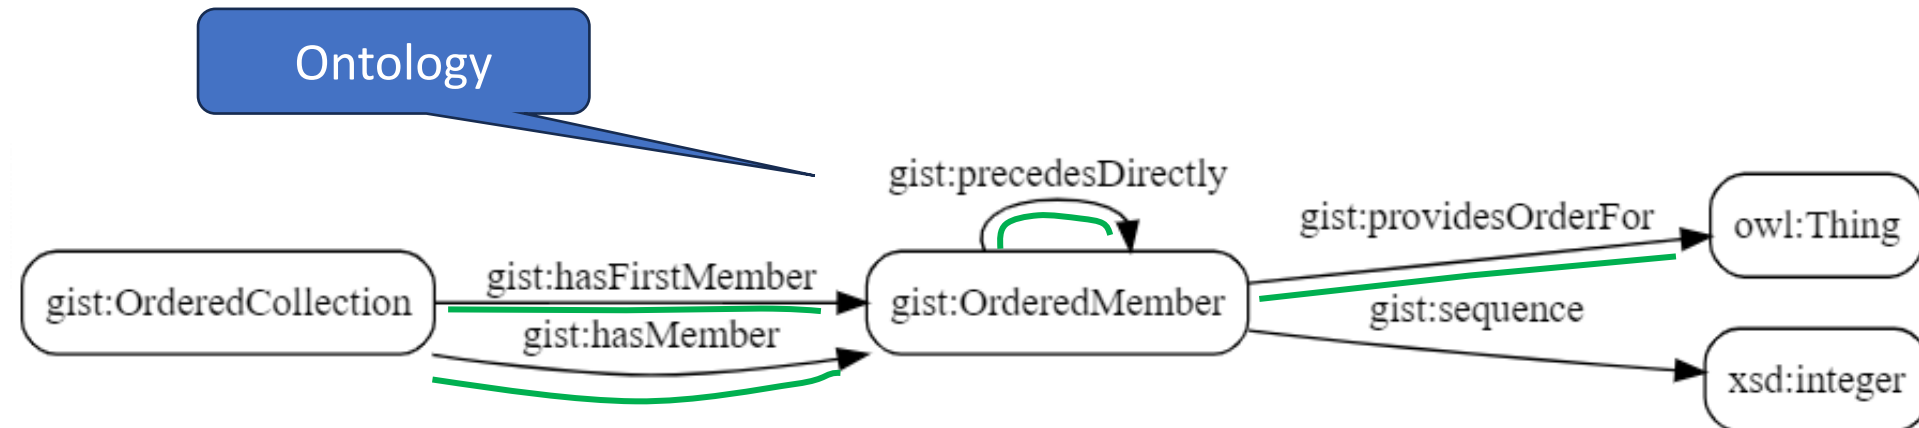

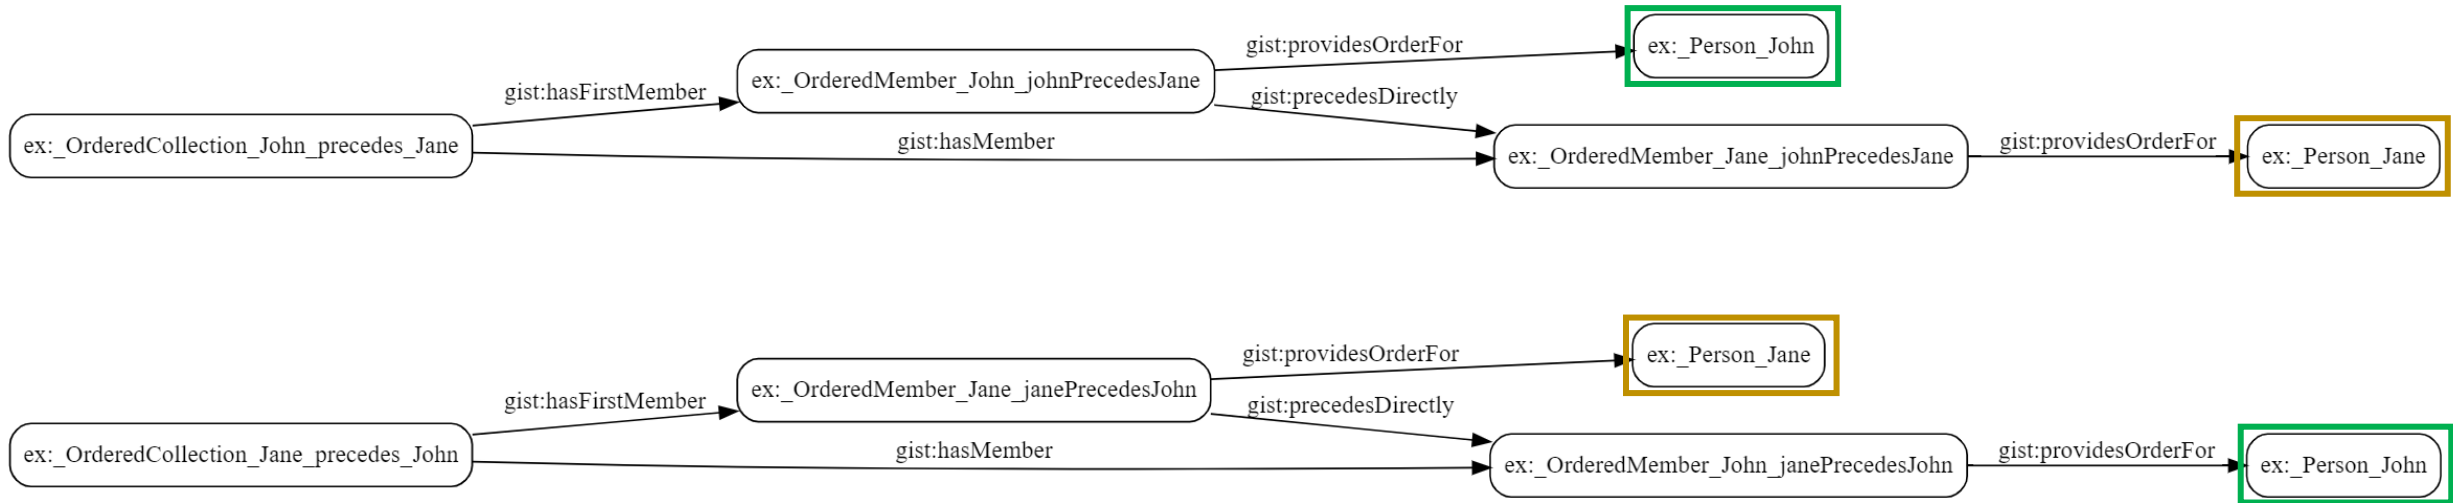

Jane Comes in First

John Comes in First

Two Ordered Collections (as Arrays)

Two Ordered Collections (as Linked Lists)

Connecting the Finishing Orders to the Races